the Village Committee. The existing order is that in Villages containing not less than 300 inhabitants, the people of the Villages should be induced to appoint a Committee consisting of a sufficient number of members, preferably by election to attend to the work of Village improvement. As there is no information available in this Office as regards the strength of each Village Committee Local Order is solicited as to whether the lists of proposed Village Councillors may be sent to the Collectors for the existing number of members of each Village Committee being noted in the list.

Memo

The Per Secy has been pleased to order that the strength of the Village Panchayats might be fixed with reference to the population of the Villages concerned as shown hereunder

	Elected.	Nominated.	Total
Population below 500	3	+ 2	= 5
Population not exceeding 1000	5	+ 2	= 7
Population exceeding 1000	6	+ 3	= 9

The strength of the Village Panchayats in case of the existing unions exceeds of the highest number being 12 which the max number of members permissible in the case of a Village Panchayat under the new L.S.G. & V.S. Regn.

Orders are solicited as to whether the maximum strength of Panchayats should be limited to 9 or whether the existing strength of panchayats of unions retained for the new Village Panchayats in cases in which the strength exceeds

N.B.—Should routine notes be written on small slips the notes must be copied, or slips pasted on this form.

In the case of unions which are having not 12 members, the number need not be reduced / where there are [illegible] Panchayats. Village Panchayats will have as near as 2000 population and 12 may not be considered a big number in such cases perhaps
